Day 7 – Jan 19 | Singing Over Our Situations

1. Father, we thank you for your Holy Spirit that dwells in us and through whom rivers of living waters of praise and glory flows from us in every situation (Romans 8:9, John 7:37-38, Romans 8:28)
2. Father, by the power of your Spirit, we march into your presence with praises and thanksgiving, lifting the rafters with our songs because you are the very Best - all-generous in love, loyal always and ever. (Psalm 95:1-7, Psalm 100)
3. Father, we praise you for taking us to the high places of blessings in Christ by the power of your Spirit and for making us the focus of your love, long before you laid the earth's foundation (Ephesians 1:3-6)
4. Father, we praise you for choosing us for the high calling of priestly work – a holy people speaking out for you (1 Peter 2:9-10)
5. Father, for your amazing works, for your generosity that never gives out, for your memorable miracles in our lives, we praise you with everything we've got (Psalm 111)
6. Father, for putting our feet on a wonderful road that takes us to a good place to live, for great drafts of water down our parched throats, and for plenty to eat when we are starved and hungry, we praise you (Psalm 107:4-9)
7. Father, for the forgiveness of our sins, healing of our diseases, and the renewal of our youth, we bless your holy name (Psalm 103:1-5)
8. Father, we receive the fresh anointing of a praising heart and say NO to every languid spirit. As we praise you, may we be established as oaks of righteousness raising new cities for your glory all around us, by the power of the Holy Spirit (Isaiah 61:1-7)
9. Father, we receive fresh grace for robust praise that shakes up everything and everyone around us, opens doors of opportunity, and sets people free from the bondage of the enemy (Acts 16:25-26)
10. Lord, may our leaping and dancing praise drown out enemy talk and make our adversaries run for the hills, as we possess our possessions (Psalm 8:2, 2 Sam 6:14, 20-23, Psalm 68:1-4, 2 Chronicles 20:21-23, Joshua 6:1-20)
11. Father, may our every breath be a praise to you and may we be granted the joy of your presence and the pleasures of living with you forever (Psalm 150, 16:11)
